SRI M. S. KRISHNAN.—In view of your answer to (d) I charge the Government of acting in a dictatorial manner and of giving a go-by to all democratic principles in respect of the functioning of the local bodies and Municipalities.

SRI B. BASAVALINGAPPA.— Should I answer that. Madam Speaker ?

MADAM SPEAKER.—No, I don't think so.

SRI DODDA THIMMAIAH.—Before the supersession of local bodies, some report has to be sent by the officers concerned, to the Government. Is the report sent at the initiative of the Government or at the initiative of the officer himself ?

SRI B. BASAVALINGAPPA.—Extending the term and taking control of the Municipalities by the Administrators it entirely different from supersession. Supersession is not there in this question.
